[XIXth Year.] THURSDAY, December 15, 1763. [No. 971.]

BURLINGTON, November 16, 1763.

SPEECH of his Excellency WILLIAM FRANKLIN, Esq; Captain General, Governor, and Commander in Chief of the Province of New-Jersey, Chancellor and Vice Admiral of the same.

Gentlemen of the Council, and Gentlemen of the General Assembly,

BY the Papers which I shall order to be laid before you, you will find that, since your last Sessions, the Indians have commenced fresh Hostilities against the English, and even extended their Incursions to the Borders of this Province. Soon after the first Intelligence of these Depredations on the Frontiers of the neighbouring Governments, I directed the Commanding Officer of the Militia in Sussex, being a County most exposed, to have his Regiment held in Readiness, to march the whole, or such Detachments, on any Part that should be attacked, or in Danger: He was likewise ordered, in case of Necessity, to call upon the Militia of the other Counties for Assistance. Accordingly, when the Indians had begun to ravage the Back Part of Pennsylvania, he sent a Detachment to support the several Forts which had been fortified on our Frontier during the late War. But as a Party of the Enemy notwithstanding came over, and destroy'd some of the Houses within the Limits of this Province; and as the rest of the Inhabitants of that County were thereby greatly alarmed, and apprehensive of Danger, I ordered Ninety Men from the Militia of Morris County to their Relief: And some time after, by the Advice of the Council, I reinforced them with Forty-five Men from the Regiment of Somerset, and directed the Fortifications at the several Forts to be repaired. Had not these Additions been granted, there is great Reason to believe, the Inhabitants would have abandoned their Settlements, and that Part of the Country become entirely depopulated, the Consequences of which are too obvious to need mentioning.—I have also empowered Jonathan Hampton, Esq; to call out the Militia which are now, or may hereafter be sent to the Frontier, with Provisions, and other Necessaries.

In all, Gentlemen, I am far from thinking that even the whole Militia of the Province were sent to our Borders, they would be sufficient to secure effectually so extended a Frontier against the Inroads of Savages. A Skulking Party of them will always have it in their Power, notwithstanding all our Care, to steal in unperceived, commit their Depredations and retire with Impunity. Would you keep the War from your own Country, there is no Way so effectual as to carry it into that of the Enemy. By acting on the Defensive only, you give them almost every Advantage they could desire. They may uninterruptedly assemble together in distant Quarters, settle their Plans of Operation, and fix their own Time for carrying them into Execution. Even if we were to send Parties of Rangers into their Country, to cut off the Communication between their several Places of Residence, surprize them in their Hunting and Fishing, destroy their Corn Fields, bring off their Women and Children, and burn their Habitations, we should, in a little Time, be able to oblige them to accept whatever Terms we might think proper to dictate. In short, if we could fight them in their own Way, we should find that an Indian War might soon be stripped of all its Terrors: And this, were the Colonies united in their Measures, would be a Matter of Facility, as we could then with Ease furnish such Parties as that could be furnished by the Enemy.

As I have long been of my Sentiments with regard to the Method of conducting a War against Indians, it affords me particular Pleasure to have it now in my Power to lay before you a Plan of Sir Jeffery Amherst's, for "putting in Execution such Offensive Operations as may be most effectual for reducing the Savages, and procuring Peace and Quiet to the English Settlements hereafter." For this desirable End, the General makes a Requisition of 600 Men, to be raised, cloathed, and paid by this Province: Arms, Tents, and Provisions he undertakes to supply on the Part of the Crown. They, with the Troops that are to be raised in New-York, and such Regulars as can be collected, are to be employed in punishing the Savages to the Northward, while the Forces raised in the Southern Colonies are carrying on Operations against the Enemy in that Quarter.—The Plan proposed, Gentlemen, appears extremely judicious, and will certainly, if well executed, be productive of most salutary Effects. It will also, I am convinced, be extremely beneficial to the Province: For the frequent taking the Inhabitants from their several Employs, assembling them at the Frontiers, and subsisting them, while there, at the Public Expence, must bring a great Expence on the Public, and be very Loss to Individuals, when many of them Men of Families, whose private Affairs must suffer greatly in their Absence.

Although the People of this Province have had but very little, if any, Commerce with Indians, yet I think it advisable, on the present Occasion, that a Law should be passed, forbidding, for a limited Time, the selling to them any military Stores whatever.

These are the only Matters, Gentlemen, I would at this Time recommend to your Consideration: And I am fully convinced as myself that, unless during the Course of our Resentment, any Peace we may hereafter make with them, will be but of short Duration. Their Country over the Ridges, and mediating the Destruction of the Nation who cannot always follow their own Inclinations I shall endeavour to cure Mistakes, the Consequence of which has for-rendered us Enemies to Indians and Protection; and their bordering Women and Children, and even Persons who had done them signal Favours, are such strong Instances of their Breach of Faith, Treachery, and Inhumanity, that they no longer deserve to be considered as in the Scale of human Beings, or indeed upon a Level with the ravenous Beasts of the Wilderness.

The Company in the Pay of this Province, which has been long stationed at Niagara, is, as you will see by the Papers communicated to you, greatly reduced. Part of them are now on their Return to the Province, and the General has promised to discharge the Remainder as soon as the Service will admit of it. Some additional Provision there will be a Necessity of making on their Account.

The Re-enacting (and amending, if requisite) the Law for regulating the Militia, is another Matter that I must recommend to you as absolutely necessary.

Gentlemen of the Council, and Gentlemen of the General Assembly,

You will, perhaps, when you have gone through the several Matters I have now recommended to you, think it a convenient Season for engaging in the other Business of the Province. If this should be the Case, you may depend on finding me ready to co-operate with you in whatever may be necessary for the Public Service.

LONDON, September 17.

ALL the old Twenty-gun Ships in the Navy are to be sold or laid up, as fast as they arrive in Port, being mostly of the old built, clumsy and heavy Sailers, and not at all calculated for the Purpose of cruising or stationed Ships, which the new ones are principally constructed for, on Account of their Swiftness, and Length of Keel.

A Gentleman of Bristol, who has lately fixed a House at Granada, writes, that it is near twice as large as Barbados; the Soil exceeding rich, produces as fine Sugar as any of our Islands; that our new Settlers have begun building a Town on a most excellent Spot, and that it bids fair for being a very flourishing Colony in a short Time.

They write from Stockholm, that from the Beginning to the End of the Failures of the Merchants in Holland and Hamburgh, above 2500 Bills of Exchange were returned Protested to several Trading Towns in Sweden, for want of Payment or Non-acceptance, amounting to a very large Sum of Money.

We hear Orders were given last Week for preparing, with the utmost Expedition, a Number of small Vessels of a particular Construction, which are to be shipped off in Frames, in order to occupy the Rivers St. Lawrence, Ohio, and the Great Lakes on the Back of our Settlements in North America.

Monday a Messenger arrived with some Dispatches from the Court of France. It is rumoured our Court has demanded the Money due for the Maintenance of the French Prisoners; and that an Answer has been given of a very extraordinary Nature.

It is said every Ship in the Royal Navy is to undergo a thorough Examination as to the State of her Bottom, as well cruising Ships as those laid up; which, as it will be a lasting Work, and furnish Employment for a great many Hands, may, perhaps, be a Means to stop so many of our Ship Carpenters from seeking their Bread elsewhere.

Thursday Night about 9 o'Clock a most dreadful Fire broke out at the House of Mr. Rogers, Ship-builder, near Coles Stairs by Shadwell Dock, and burnt till Two next Morning; upwards of 40 Houses, Shops, &c. close to the Water-side, and several Boats, were burnt.

In order to assist the Currency and Circulation of North-America, occasioned by the late Increase of Trade since the Peace, vast Quantities of Half-pence have been ordered in Commission from thence, among which it is to be feared, no small Number of Birmingham, will unavoidably be introduced.

BOSTON, November 14.

Yesterday Afternoon arrived here Capt. Dean, in a Brig 14 Weeks from Bristol, who informs, that last Friday Night, at 11 o'Clock, on George's Banks, he discovered a Comet in the South-east Board, about 45 Degrees from the Horizon, with a Tail about two Fathoms long, which extended towards the North-east. The Curious are desired to observe it with their Telescopes.

By a Letter from London, we are informed, that it was reported there, that the Government will require 10,000 Troops to be kept in Pay by the Northern Colonies, and at their sole Expence.

NEW-YORK, November 24.

We hear several Vessels are ashore at Barnegat.

We hear from Jamaica, Long Island, that last Week died there one John Cockafer, who was born so long ago, that for many Years he had forgot his Age. He often said he was a Soldier in the Fort in Governor Leysler's Time (who was here during a Civil War) and had been a Man grown several Years before he enlisted, and that, when a young Man, he had often shot Squirrels, &c. on or near Pot Baker's Hill, in this City, which was then a Wilderness.

PHILADELPHIA, November 24.

Last Saturday about 2 o'Clock in the Afternoon, one Henry Hamilton was stopped on Williamicco Road, three Miles from this City by a Foot Pad, who clapped a Pistol to him, and ordered him to deliver, when Hamilton took out his Pocket Book, and gave him all the Money he had; the Highwayman asked him for his Dollars, and being told by Hamilton that he had none, the Villain immediately shot him in the Breast, and then made off into the Woods, of which Wound he languished till two o'Clock next Morning, and then died. The Villain is described by Hamilton to be a middle siz'd Man, with a light colour'd Coat, and dark Hair or Wig. The next Day several Persons were taken up on Suspicion, and committed to Goal. One of which is a Runaway Convict from Maryland.

Extract of a Letter from Carlisle, November 8.

"Again our savage Enemy have begun to infest our Borders. Yesterday Morning, about or before Sun-rise, as one James Williamson was going from his House to his Barn, he was fired on by three Indians, who killed and scalped him, and his two youngest Children, taking the eldest (a Girl about ten Years old) Prisoner; the Wife happily made her Escape.—Said Williamson lived about 16 Miles up the County, near the Foot of the North Mountain. The Settlement being alarmed, a Party of near Forty immediately turned out, and went in Pursuit of the Enemy; and unless by this Means the Indians be intimidated to a hasty Flight, we shall most probably here of more Mischief being done, as the Inhabitants on this Side of the Hill were in general gone home to their Places, and many also of those over the Hill."

P. S. "An Account is just now arrived of Indians having been seen Yesterday, in the Upper Part of Shearman's Valley; and that the People are hasting from that Side of the Hill.—The Party that went out after the three Indians, is returned without finding them."

Extract of another Letter from Carlisle, Nov. 14.

"By a Gentleman arrived this Evening from Bedford, we have the following Account, viz. That the Convoy of Provisions for Pittsburgh left that Place on Thursday last, under an Escort of about 60 Men: That on Friday Morning several Indians were seen about, or near, the Road: That one Man, who had been out hunting Horses, was dangerously wounded, but made his Escape, and was brought back to Bedford: That William Reed, and David Glass, were found killed and scalped the same Day at Dunning's Creek, about three Miles beyond Bedford; and a Third was missing, supposed to be taken Prisoner: And that it was thought there was a large Party of the Enemy in those Parts, as many Tracks had been discovered.

"By the same Gentleman we are further informed, That Yesterday, in the Afternoon, soon after he got to Fort Loudoun, two young Men came in there, having fled from the Great Cove, and brought Advice, that on their hearing several Guns fired in the Forenoon, and imagining it to be a Party of Indians, they, and two others, went to make a Discovery, and soon came up with about about 50 of them, as near as they could guess: That the Enemy discovering them, fired at and wounded one; upon which these two fled; and when they had got on the Hills, looking back, they saw two Houses in Flames, the Families of which, it is feared, are all killed, except one Lad, who has made his Escape.—This is all we have yet heard, but expect a Day or two more will bring us a great deal of melancholy News."

Nov. 15. "Accounts of this Morning say, that four Houses were seen on Fire in the Cove, and the Families supposed to be murdered."

Dec. 1. From Sussex County in New-Jersey, we have Intelligence, that on the 17th Instant Capt. Westbrook, with 11 more of the Militia, went over to the Pennsylvania Side, in order to bring off some Cattle and Effects which were left there by Persons who had deserted their Habitations: That about three Miles from the River they were attacked by a Body of Indians, who killed Capt. Westbrook, William Cartwright, Andreas Decker, Nathaniel Carter, and one Duncan: That six others escaped to Nominac, and a Person of the Name of Whealand is missing, supposed to be carried off, to give an Account of the Situation of the Forces on the River: That a Party of 150 Militia, immediately on receiving the News of this Disaster, went over to Pennsylvania, to bury the Dead, who found the Bodies of five of our Men most inhumanly butchered, and an Indian shaved and dressed in the Mohawk Manner, who was killed in the Engagement; the white Men they brought off and buried, and scalped the Indian; That the Party of Indians were thought, by the Persons engaged, to be upwards of 40 in Number, and 'tis imagined they were apprehensive of the Alarm spreading, and therefore made a precipitate Retreat, as they did not carry off the Indian that was killed, and left the following Things behind them, near the Place of Action, viz. about the Quantity of a Waggon Load of smoaked Beef and Pork, 12 lb. of Tallow, 2 French Guns, a Mohawk Indian Cap, 1 Blanket, 2 Belts of Wampum, a Scalping-knife, Looking-glass, Leggings, Moquasens, &c. And that it is the Opinion of the Inhabitants on the New-Jersey Frontier in general, that this Party were on their Way to that Province, and that if they had not been met, as they were, by Captain Westbrook's Party, they would have committed great Damage that Evening among the Inhabitants on that Frontier, which it would have been out of the Power of the Guard stationed there to have prevented.

Extract of a Letter from Bedford, Nov. 13, 1763.

"The Convoy is returned back here from the Foot of the Allegheny Mountain, having discovered several Parties of Indians that were skulking about on the Road, which the Commanding Officer of the Escort judged were designed to take the Advantage of some of the difficult Passes, and attack him; by which, as he had not Men enough to protect the Whole, he feared a great Part of the Convoy might fall into their Hands. And it appears, from the Return of several Expresses, who had been sent with Deliga to go to Ligonier, that the Officer judged right, as they found on the Allegheny Hill several large Parties of Indians, which prevented their proceeding on the Road."

In another Letter it is said, that it is feared some of the Horse Drivers are killed, as they had been out hunting their Horses, and were not returned.

On Saturday Morning last, between the Hours of One and Two, the House of Mr. Jonathan Zane, in Second street, was attempted to be broke open; they had got in the Back Way, from Laetitia Court, and lifted up the Sash of the Room where Mr. Zane slept; but the Noise wakening him and Wife, they called out several times, who was there, and what they wanted; the Rogues, however, made no Answer, but still seemed to persist in getting in, till Mr. Zane's Sons, hearing the Noise, came down Stairs, and one of them calling to the other for the Gun that was loaded, one of the Thieves, who they imagined had got into the Room, made hastily off, and in the going out, broke a Pane of Glass, which fell on the Outside of the Window, and got away.

Extract of a Letter from Bethlehem, November 19.

"Yesterday in the Afternoon we received Advice from Fort-Allen, that Job Chilloway [illegible] there the Night before, and brought Word that Papunchang, and many more, were coming down, as Friends, from Wyalooling, having determined to separate themselves from the Enemy Indians; and that he had run as fast as he could two Days before them, because he apprehended that some Enemy Indians would fall on the Inhabitants about the same Time his Company would arrive, which might be laid to their Charge.—He therefore desired that timely Notice might be sent to the People on the Frontiers, that no just cause Intelligence that three Parties of Enemy Indians were coming down to fall on this County; Forty of them on the Minisinks; Fifteen towards Allemingle; and Twelve on our Parts. Mr. Erwin is gone out to meet Papunchang and his Company.
